Tell me, my speaker-box.
When did I know the world is dark?
Now, I can't get the answer by my self.
Tell me, my speaker-box.
I'm utterly losing my way now.
Have you finished exciting my mind yet?

I know what I can't talk with you
Even if I plug into you.
But I'm certain of day that
You are coming soon to my place.
I wanna get your answer now.

My dream was falling from my speaker-box every night.
You never answer to me anymore.
But I know your tone, I trust your voice,
And I love your feeling even tonight.

Tell me, my speaker-box.
Did I fall out of trust by myself?
Now I've forgotten how to talk to you.
Tell me, my speaker-box.
Is it unchanged day and night? oh let me know.
I wanna get your answer now.

My dream was falling from my speaker-box every night.
You never answer to me anymore.
But I know your tone, I trust your voice,
And I love your feeling even tonight.

I know what I can't talk with you
Even if I plug into you.
But I'm certain of day that
You are coming soon to my place.

[* Repeat]
