I've been through the storm
I've been through the rain
I've experienced so much hurt
I've experienced so much pain
He's always there
No matter what the snare
If He brought me this far
He'll take me all the way

The economy is still down
The enemies trying to run me down
I got my faith in You
I know your word is true
Said you 'll never leave me
You'll always be right there
If You brought me this far
You'll take me all the way

All the way
I had to cry sometimes, You wiped the tears from my eyes
All the way
I put my trust in You, You know what to do
All the way
When I wanted to scream about everything
Oh you brought me
All the way
I want to praise You lord until I get my reward

If he brought me this far
He'll take me all the way

I've been through the fire
I've been through the flamage
Thank God, I'm covered
Hey I'm covered by His blessing
If it were not for Him, for the Lord
I'd've never, I would've never make it this far
If he brought me this far
He'll take me all the way

All the way
I had to cry sometimes, You wiped the tears from my eyes
All the way
I put my trust in You, cause You know what to do
All the way
At times I wanted to scream about everything
Oh you brought me
All the way
I want to praise You lord until I get my reward

If he brought me this far [x3]
He'll take me all the way

He brought me... [w/ adlibs]
