"What A Lovely Way"

What a lovely way to wake up in the morning.
What a lovely way to start a sunny day.
When your eyes are open wide,
and you take a look outside,
and you say you'll get a brighter way.

What a lovely way to keep yourself from yawning.
What a lovely way to start another day.
When the sun shines in the sky,
and the birds are singing high,
and I whisper to you "Let me stay".

Cuddle down beside you,
hold you near and with my hand
gently stroke your cheek and say:
"How about it, let's get up, it's time it all began,
time to start another lovely day!"

What a lovely way to spend a sunny morning.
What a lovely way to start a sunny day.
We were rather late last night,
but it's not a sorry plight
if you wake up feeling bright and gay.

Lalalalala...

Get up on your feet my dear.
Go out and meet the sun,
shining, saying: "Let's make hay" (?)
Get a move on out of bed,
it's time to have some fun.
Time to start another lovely day!

What a lovely way to spend a sunny morning.
What a lovely way to start a sunny day.
With your loved one by your side,
and your eyes are open wide,
and you wake up feeling bright and gay.

Lalalalala...

With your loved one by your side,
and your eyes are open wide,
and you wake up feeling bright and gay.

Lalalalala...
