Get back, get back
Get back to where you once belonged
Get back, whoa, get back
Get back to where you once belonged

Jojo was a man who thought he was loner
But he knew it couldn't last
For some California grass

Get back, now get back
Get back to where you once belonged
Now get back, now get back
Get back to where you once belonged

Sweet love had a modern thought she was a woman
Found she was another man
All the girls around are set she has it coming
What she can do while she can

Now get back, now get back
Now get back to where you once belonged
Now get back, now get back
Get back to where you once belonged,

Get back, now get back
Now get back to where you once belonged
Now get back, now get back
Now get back to where you once belonged

Jojo was a man who thought he was loner
But he found it couldn't last
For some California grass

Now get back, now get back
Now get back to where you once belonged
Now get back, now get back
Now get back to where you once belonged

Now get back
Now get back to where you once belonged

Now get back, now get back
Now get back to where you once belonged
Now get back
