Give my heart to any stranger
Throw my heart out any door
Put my heart in constant danger
I don't want it anymore

It just gets me in trouble
It just gets me in love
I fly high and then I stumble
The time has come to give it up

Don't you know I was an angel?
Don't you know my heart was true?
Then I gave it to some devil
And he broke it all in two, I don't want it anymore

You can learn all my heart's secrets
You might see golden memories
Anything you find just keep it
It just don't mean a thing to me

Don't you know I was an angel?
Don't you know my heart was true?
Then I gave it to some devil
And he broke it all in two, I don't need it anymore

Don't you know I was an angel?
Don't you know my heart was true?
Then I gave it to some stranger
And he broke my heart in two, I don't want it anymore
