I'm sick and tired of hangin' on for too long
Of what they told me when it feels so wrong, so wrong
It's gone too far and feels like no way out
Injustice rules and no one has a doubt

But am I really that lonely?
Is no one here who feels the way I do?
I'm getting sick of what they told me
And I just can't take it no more

For peace and freedom
I'll give my blood to make it right
For peace and real thing
I dedicate my lazy life and make it right

You don't give a thing but take it all
You don't give a damn for what it's for
If comfort rule it makes you sleep at night
Your conscience might wake you up one time

But am I really that lonely?
Is no one here who feels the way I do?
I'm getting sick of what they told me
And I just can't take it no more

For peace and freedom
I gave my blood to make it right
For peace and the real things
I dedicate my boring life

I can't go on, I won't go on
I can't go on and close my eyes
I gave my blood to make it right
I can't go on and close my eyes and get it right

Am I really that lonely?
Is no one here who feels the way I do?
I'm getting sick of what they told me
And I just can't take it no more

For peace and freedom
I'll give my blood to make it right

For peace and real things
I dedicate this lazy life

I can't go on, I won't go on
I can't go on and close my eyes
I gave my blood to make it right
For peace and real things in life

I won't go on
I can't go on and close my eyes
I can't go on, I won't go on
Can't go on and close my eyes

I can't go on, I won't go on
I gave my blood to make it right
I can't go on and close my eyes
