i want you back againuh i want you backi can't take itthat you're with someone elseuh i want you herei want you with me back again your very reason for leavingwas that i let you go but you know i regret it nowi wish i could make up for itsomehowcos' we were meant for each otherso much love and pain we sharedi didn't mean to hurt you so bad
i want you back againuh i want you backi can't take itwhen you're with someone elseuh i want you herei want you with me back again i never understoodthat we' were meant to beuntil i saw you disappearuntil i saw you goi came to realizethat you were the one for meand that without youi would rather die the only reason i'm livingis just for loving youi wish i could make it all come truecos' you are the only one for meuh i don't have much hopewhen i don't feel your loveyou're all that i've got

i want you back againuh i want you backi'm jealouswhen you're with someone elseuh i want you herei want you with meand no one else
jealouswhen you're with someone elseuh i want you
