Every time you call you can't imagine what it's like I'm getting chills
I hear you're voice each time

And every time we talk
I get shivers down my spine
I can't deny you're always on my mind

I never had this feeling never so strong before
with every day I want you more
I can't stop believing
I can't stop dreaming
oh God I wish I would know

What can take me into your heart
what can I do
would you help me from falling apart
Is my love enough for you ?! Enough for you !

Everywhere I go
I wish you would pass me by I keep on waiting for you anytime

And every night I pray you would think of me sometimes hope I could move your heart your soul your mind .....

Would it really matter
If I knew you better would you know which way to go
I can't stop believing
I can't stop dreaming
It's you or no one in this world !

What can take me into your heart
what can I do
would you help me from falling apart
Is my love enough for you, enough for you

with every day I want you more
I can't stop believing
I can't stop dreaming
oh God, I wish I would know
