It still hurts, I still weep
Over promises we keep
It still hurts, I still bleed
Over promises we keep

Over promises we keep
It still hurts, I still bleed
And the promise that we keep
Will stay forever

Do you know
What happened to me?
After we threw it all away
Yeah, everyday I drowned in sorrow
And just in case you want know
If I can feel the pain

It still hurts, I still weep
Over promises we keep
It still hurts, I still bleed
Over promises we keep

It still hurts, I still weep
Over promises we keep
It still hurts, I still bleed
And the promise that we keep
Will stay forever

I try to go on
But man it took a long time
I through that your fate
Would never change
But somewhere you were
Changing your mind
And every day I feel the pain
Driving me insane
