"Walking With The Angels"

Sometimes they wonder why I am not afraid
All this thunder and all this heavy rain
And they wonder
Yes, they wonder, yeah they do

Sometimes they wonder if I will ever break
All these burdens and all this heavy pain
And they wonder
Yes, they wonder but I don't

There is a power, not from this world
I found a power, a higher power

I'm walking with an angel
I'm talking with an angel too
I'm walking with the angels
And they pull me through the darkness too

I've been traveling a dark and deadly road
Sometimes so lonely but never real alone
No wonder, I've been under
The wings of a godly soul

I'll tell you secrets that I found out for sure
I'll wanna show you there's help and guidance too
Oh, don't wonder, no don't wonder
I can prove that it's true

There is a power not from this world
I found a power, a higher power

I'm walking with an angel
I'm talking with an angel too
I'm walking with the angels
And they're watching over me, it's true

There is a power, not from this world
I found a power, a higher power

I'm walking with an angel

I'm talking with an angel too
I'm walking with the angels
And they're watching over me and you

I'm walking with the angels
I'm talking with the angels
And they're watching over me and you

I'm talking with the angels
I'm walking with the angels too
I'm talking with the angels

Walking with the angels
I'm talking with the angels too
Walking with the angels
