(she's lost)
Words mean nothing now
(she's lost)

She didn't want to conquer you
Another misconception
It tasted strange, she can't explain
But it's all forgotten now

Her fingerprints are on your hands
That's all she's left for you
You just untangled all her words
They're inexpensive now

(she's lost)
Words mean nothing now
(she's lost)

You walked the world
It's almost over now
You satellite escape each day

You've got an alpha female muse
A little introspection
She isn't there to be misused
The shallowest reflection

(she's lost)
Words mean nothing now
(she's lost)
