I've been thinking about the time that we first met,
You said you loved cuz you thought I was someone else.

oh yeah.

But lately, I've been wanting to talk about it,
and I've been, tripping on myself
so stop me, before I let you walk away.

I think it's better if you, stay
Just think about it someday.
I'm begging you to Stay. Cuz I'm ready, I'm ready for
you. (I'm ready for,)

I can't believe that things are better when you're on your own,
Maybe the reason that you think you should let me go,
oh yeah.

But lately, I've been wanting to talk about it,
And I've been, tripping on myself.
So stop me, before I let you walk away.

I think it's better if you, stay.
Just think about it someday.
I'm begging you to, stay.
Cuz I'm ready, I'm ready for you (I'm ready for,)

You want it, don't leave it, don't ever let me go,
There's something I'm missing,
Baby, let me go.

I think it's better if you stay.
Just think about it someday.
I'm begging you to Stay. Cuz I'm ready, I'm ready for you.

I think it's better if you stay.
Just think about it someday.
I'm begging you to stay.
Cuz I'm ready, I'm ready for you
(I think it's better if you,)
