Walking in a strait line
Not as hard as it seems
Everyday further, than the days in between

Well I know that I have broke some promises
I know that I have said some things
Every past mistake I have made
Brought me to where I am supposed to be

Counting now One,Two
One Two, One Two Three Go
Whoa oh I'm never any better than where I am now
(It's everything I need to know)
Whoa oh I'm never any better than where I am now

Walking in a strait line
I got the stars at my feet
My tongue is planted firmly
In the side of my cheek

Well I know that I have broke some promises
I know that I have said some things
Every past mistake I have made
Brought me to where I am supposed to be

Counting now One,Two
One Two, One Two Three Go
Whoa oh I'm never any better than where I am now
(It's everything I need to know)
Whoa oh I'm never any better than where I am now

Whoa oh I'm never any further than where I am now
(It's everything I need to know)
Whoa oh I'm never any further than where I am now

Whoa oh I'm never any better than where I am now
(It's everything I need to know)
Whoa oh I'm never any better than where I am now
