(Boudleaux Bryant - Chet Atkins)

I've had nothing but sorrow
Since you said we were through
There's no hope for tomorrow
How's the world treatin' you?

Well, every sweet thing that mattered
Has been broken in two
And all my dreams have been shattered
How's the world treatin' you?

I got no plans for next Sunday
I got no plans for today
Everyday is blue Monday
Every day you're away.

Though our pathways have parted
To your mem'ry I'm true
And guess I'll stay broken hearted,
How's the world treatin' you?

--- Instrumental ---

Well, do you wonder about me
Like I'm hoping you do
Are you lonesome without me
Have you found someone new?

Are you burning and yearning
Do you ever get blue
And do you think of reurning
How's the world treatin' you?

How's the world treatin' you?...
