(Hank Williams)

Hear that lonesome whippoorwill
He seems too blue to fly
And midnight train is whining low
And I'm so lonesome I could cry.

I've never seen a night so long
The time just goes crawling by
And the moon just went behind a cloud
To hide its face and cry.

Did you ever hear a robin weep
When leaves began to fall
That means he's lost all the will to live
I'm so lonesome I could cry.

The silence of a falling star
Lights up a purple sky
And as I wonder where you are
I'm so lonesome I could cry.

Oh, I'm so lonesome I could cry...
