(Floyd Tillman - Jimmie Davis)

Makes no difference now, what kind of life they hand me

I'll get along without you now that's plain to see
I don't care what happens next, I'll get by somehow
I don't worry 'cause it makes no difference now.

It was just one year ago that I first met you
I learned to love you and I thought you loved me too
Oh, but that's all in the past and I'll forget somehow
I don't worry 'cause it makes no difference now.

Now that we have really parted I just can't believe it's through
I don't blame myself and I'm sure I can't blame you
It was something that had to happen and it happened somehow
I don't worry 'cause it makes no difference now.

'Cause after all is said and done I'll soon forget you
Although I know it won't be easy to do
Let things happen as they will, I'll get by somehow
I won't worry 'cause it makes no difference now.

Why worry it makes no difference now...
