Stealing someone else's love is as bad as any crime And we know someday we'll pay we're just loving on borrowed time
How much longer can I hide this stolen love that can't be mine
And how much longer can we run till they find oh oh we're loving on borrowed time [steel]
Loving in our sacred world has been like heaven here on earth
But you know as well as I we're just loving on borrowed time
But for now forget and hold me tight how could we ever say goodbye
For we're bound to get burn this flame is much too high

Oh oh we're loving on borrowed time oh oh we're loving on borrowed time
