(Willie Nelson)

(Touch me, touch me.)

Touch me, touch the girl who once held
All the world in her hand
Touch me, touch the arms of the girl
That once held the world's finest man.

Touch me, maybe someday you may need
To know how you feel when you lose
So touch me and you'll know
How you feel with the blues.

--- Instrumental ---

Watch me, watch the eyes that have seen
All the heartbreak and pain in the world
And be thankful that you're happy
Though standing so close to the world's bluest girl.

Don't forget me, take a good look at someone
Who's lost everything she can lose
So touch me and you'll know
How you feel with the blues.

(Touch me, touch me.)

Don't forget me, take a good look at someone
Who's lost everything she can lose
So touch me and you'll know
How you feel with the blues.

(Touch me, touch me...)
