She has the smile of an angel
That you'd have to see
Just picture fresh flowers
For-get-me-knots
She'd say to me
The sirens they blared
The cars passed us by
Then she stared right through me
So I had to cry...

Ambulance-
And we'd glance
And they're taking her
Away...
Ambulance-
Second chance-
But there's nothing you
Could say...

Though her arms were quite broken
They say "Its all in her head"
They gave her more medicine though
And sent her to bed
The people she saw
See the tears fill her eyes
As she tries to listen
And we told her lies!

Ambulance-
And we'd glance
And they're taking her
Away...
Ambulance-
Second chance-
But there's nothing you
Could say...

Red- and white- and Red-
Through the streets
Red- and white- and Red-
It repeats
Red- and white- and Red-

Through the streets
Red- and white- and Red-

Ambulance-
And we'd glance
And they're taking her
Away...

Ambulance-
Second chance...
And they're taking her!
Taking her... !
Taking her... !

So maybe she's happier there
She gets out today
And maybe it isn't quite fair
That she has to stay
The sirens they blared
The cars passed us by
And she ran back to me
And we said goodbye

Ambulance-
And we'd glance
And they're taking her
Away...
Ambulance-
Second chance
And there's nothing you could say...

Red- and white- and Red-
Through the streets
Red- and white- and Red-
It repeats
Red- and white- and Red-
Through the streets
Red- and white- and Red-
Red- and white- and Red-
Ambulance
