I'm staring further in two mirrors
Trying to reach some peace of mind
Knowing nothing is the distance
To the life I left behind
'Cause you were everything I wanted (waiting...)
And wanted nothing that I knew (wanting...)
So every time I find a reason (Hating...)
I've spent another year with you (Haunting...)

(Me...)
But are you getting better
Or are you just bitter
Are you seeing things like yesterday?
Or did we even matter
I'd- fight-
The Hate
That dwells within you
The very poison in each vein
So are you getting better?
Or Bitter from the pain...
I'm bitter from the pain

I see the silence is my future
Haunting all my memories
Can't run and hide
Can't shake these feelings
Of our love that use to be
My heart is beating
Yet I'm broken
Trapped by tears
I did not cry
Choked by words
I took for granted
On life support
I could not die

But are you getting better
Or are you just bitter
Are you seeing things like yesterday?
Or did we even matter
I'd fight
The hate

That dwells within you
The very poison in each vein
(Poison in each vein)
So are you getting better?
Or Bitter from the pain...
I'm bitter from the pain

Waiting...
Wanting...
Hating...
Haunting...

Are you getting better
Or are you just bitter
Are you seeing things like yesterday?
Or did we even matter
I'd fight
The Hate
That dwells with in you
The very poison in each vein
(Poison in each vein)
So are you getting better?
Or Bitter from the pain...
Bitter from the pain?
I'm Bitter from the pain...
Bitter from the pain... !
I'm Bitter from the pain...
