"Everyday"

Some days we started off easy
Others they went by so fast
But if I could change with each reason
Then I'd say that our love could last

Because everyday I think about
Everyday I think about
Everyday I think about you

Some days were metal on metal
Grinding til we both don't fit
Others we watched like a movie
Pretending to Like all of it

But everyday I think about
Everyday I think about
Everyday I think about you

Close my eyes
For you
Turn my back
For you
I'd stand in the rain
Just to ease all your pain
I'm still waiting
Still wanting
To call out your name

(Because)
Everyday I think about
Everyday I think about
Everyday I think about you

Everyday I think about
Everyday I think about
Everyday I think about you
And me...
You and me...
