"Common Enemy"

Arm yourselves with the truth, were marching out of 500 years of lies
Burning that bridge to the ground, it's been crossed
one too many times
There's no money in our culture for your system, so all eyes turn to the youth
Their minds imprisoned, their thoughts convicted in school

The voice of reason is sore from screaming
Tolerance mutes the cries now noones listening
How can you live in the shadow of these lies?
Your life is outweighed by the greed in their eyes

They fear you so they shelter you with lies, to keep you from the truth of liberty Kept us in the dark, now we got a light, we got a common enemy!

The voice of reason is sore from screaming
Tolerance mutes the cries now noones listening
How can you live in the shadow of these lies?
Your life is outweighed by the greed in their eyes in their eyes...

Its written in blood and on the walls
The bigger they are the harder they fall
What good is action when you only react
How can you tolerate the lies when you know the facts?

Unify, Defy!
We got a common enemy
Unify, Defy!
We got a common enemy

Why do we settle for lies? when we know the truth
Why do we step aside? when we witness the abuse
Why do we comprimise? when they've taken everything
Unify, Defy! we got a common enemy

Arm yourself with the truth, were marching out of 500

years of lies
Burning that bridge to the ground, it's been crossed
one too many times

Unify, Defy!
Unify, Defy!
Unify, Defy!
Unify, Defy!
We got a common enemy!
