Im not going anywhere today i found that there's no use i have my reasons I'd like to think it'll have to do im not giving anymore yesterday i tried to hard i had a reason now that reason is gone

Im lying to myself i don't care anymore im lying to myself im so...

Im not going out of my way yesterday i was naive I'll come down when i have a reason so don't wait up for me take all you can depression is an excuse more than what you need i need the abuse

Im lying to myself i don't care anymore im lying to
myself im so...

Hate...lies...truth? leave me alone

Im lying to myself i don't care anymore im lying to
myself im so...

Im not going anywhere today i found that there's no use i had a reason now i have an excuse im not giving anymore yesterday i gave all i had i thought i was happy it was just a fad

Im lying to myself i don't care anymore im lying to myself im so bored m lying to myself i don't care anymore im lying to myself im so...
