I think i'll try now, i won't give in
I'm so tired now, give me a reason

Break a scene
Burn something
It'll all come back to me

I think i'll fly now cut you loose too
You're so high now what's the use?

Break a scene burn something
It'll all come back to me

Without a doubt and little concern
Take it all out it doesn't hurt
The truth's obscene & nothing's fair
I'd meet you halfway but you don't care

You don't care

I think i'll try now i won't give in
I'm so tired now give me a reason

Break a scene burn something
It'll all come back to me break a scene
Burn something it'll all come back to me

You don't care
