You think i like this? it makes me sick i never wanted any part of it this twisted story's coming apart at the seams once i had a reason, i had a dream

Someone elses nightmare it hurts too much to realize someone elses nightmare i don't want to close my eyes someone elses nightmare i tried to make a change someone elses nightmare i live it everyday

Just leave me, i wont regret it's all the same, you're just like the fucking rest it's one thing you say, another you do your ignorance runs thick, but it's thin enough to see through

Someone elses nightmare it hurts too much to realize
someone elses nightmare i tried to make a change someone elses nightmare i live it everyday everyday

someone elses nightmare i don't want to close my eyes
someone elses nightmare i tried to make a change
someone elses nightmare i live it everyday everyday

No matter what i try they don't seem to understand what? i can't do what i want just because of who i am? the ends don't justify the means, what did i do? once i had a dream, but i woke up to...

Someone elses nightmare it hurts too much to realize
someone elses nightmare i don't want to close my eyes
someone elses nightmare i tried to make a change
someone elses nightmare i live it everyday
