look at me and tell me the truth
what do you do when people don't know what we go through they see my blonde hair, blue eyes and class but they don't know i have a really big heart please, don't get me wrong i know that i am hot but textbook perfection really takes a lot when guys call my phone and girls call me names but like miley said

i can't be tamed

[chorus]
hot girls we have problems too we're just like you
except we're hot
the world needs to open their eyes
and realise
we're not perfect and sometimes we lie!

i got the look
i got the butt
but those things don't make me a slut boys call me stuck up girls say i'm conceited on behalf of all hot girls those comments aren't needed

just cuz i'm pretty
i have to be dumb
i don't care about wits
i just wanna have fun
people start rumours
and say things about me funny thing is:
i didn't go to the party

[chorus x 2]
hot girls we have problems too

except we're hot
and realise
we're not perfect and sometimes we lie!

ha!

why oh why
can't you see
you all are just like me
we make mistakes and get in trouble now you know our hot girls' trouble

except we're hot
and realise
we're not perfect and sometimes we lie!

[chorus x 2]
hot girls we have problems too
except we're hot
and realise

just kidding~
we're perfect
