Think of a dark night, think of her love
Feeling the sorrow, feeling the pain.
I was only trying to stand to the others, I'd fall in your arms.

There's something about you that we'll never know.
I only wanted you, today, I change my life.
Nothing to do or shout in for a minute
You came and I saw you walk out the door.

Why did the rain dissolve all my dreaming?
Break through your hell, discover this feeling
Now that you know I'm feeling low, my friend, without you.
Break from the crowd, I'll shout it loud, I'll trust in your words.

Just lay and whisper, just for sometime
Believing together, leave it tonight.
I only wanted your love, don't bring me down
Or let you know my life and I'll never be in danger.
You came and I saw you walk out the door.

Why did the rain dissolve all my dreaming?
Break through your hell, discover this feeling, oh! Oh!
Now that you know I'm feeling low, my friend, without
you.
Break from the crowd, I'll shout it loud.
You can do it now 'cause baby, you're my love.
