When I get famous
There'll be so many people want to know me
So if you want to know me right now
You'd better make some kind of an effort
When I get famous there'll be so many people
Clambering to touch my hands
I don't care if the love ain't real
I just want to know that feel
I want someone to love me
I want someone to love me
Because you rejected me
You rejected me
But when I get famous there'll be
So many people want to know me
I'll be able to pick and choose
You'll just be one in a line
When I get famous there'll be so many people
Clambering to touch my finger tips
I don't care if the love ain't real
I just want to know that feel
I want someone to love me
I want someone to love me (slag mole bitch)
Because you rejected me
You rejected me
But when I get famous there'll be
So many people want to know me
