

Doug Ashdown

"Winter In America"

Visit "Winter In America" on MotoLyrics.com

The harbour's misty in the morning love, oh, how I miss December

The frangipani opens up to kiss the salty air

I know you're gettin' ready for the office

I suppose he's still there with you, sharing our morning sun

Winter in America is cold and I just keep growing older

I wish I could have known enough of love to leave love
enough alone

I've learned something of love I wish I'd known before you left me

But it's funny how you don't know what you've got until it's gone

And I hope you're getting all the love you ever wanted

But I wish I was there with you, sharing our morning sun

I wake into the sadness of the rain and making love to strangers

And wishing I had known enough of love to leave love
enough alone

Winter in America is cold and I just keep growing older

I wish I could have known enough of love to leave love
enough alone

Winter in America is cold and I just keep growing older

I wish I could have known enough of love to leave love
enough alone

Visit Doug Ashdown page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.