She got lips like Marylyn Monroe
A voice like Lauren Bacall
Every time I hear her
Or looked at her eyes
Well I never knew that she was acting at all

She's got a future in the movies
She's got a life upon a stage
Cause anybody who can cry on cue
Is bound to make it big some day
She'd be good in Hollywood
The land of make believe
She's got a future in the movies
Cause she acted like she
Was really in love with me

She said she'd always love me
And I would be the only one in her heart
I found out she was rehearsing her lines
Getting ready for a bigger and better part

She's got a future in the movies
She's got a life upon a stage
Cause anybody who can cry on cue
Is bound to make it big some day
Why, she'd be good in Hollywood
The land of make believe
She's got a future in the movies
Cause she acted like she
Was really in love with me

She deserves a standing ovation
For the best performance of her career
She deserves an Oscar nomination
The envelope please
She's the actress of the year

She's got a future in the movies
She's got a life upon a stage
Cause anybody who can cry on cue
Is bound to make it big some day

Yes, she'd be good in Hollywood
The land of make believe
She's got a future in the movies
Cause she acted like she
Was really in love with me

Oh yes she did now
She acted like she
Was really in love with me

Imagine that!
