Light the lite put the candle by the door
Yes I'm coming home again. yes I'm coming home
Tonight's the nite sugar, we'll let the good times roll
Well I'm coming home again. yes I'm coming home

Without your lovin I can hardly breathe
I miss you baby you're my only dream.
And when the nite is long and I'm sleepin all alone
I think about you baby in my hollywood home

Your sweet love is what I really need
Yes, I'm coming home again yes I'm coming home
Spend some time honey just you and me
Yes, I'm coming home again yes, I'm coming home

Don't you know that our love is shining
Shining brighter than a brand new day
And when the night is long and I'm sleepin all alone
I think about you baby and the kids back home
