Oh my darling it's time to say goodbye
Oh my darling darling please don't cry
I know it hurts so much you know it hurts me too
Goodbye darling I'll be leavin soon.

Leaves are falling it's been a sleepless night
Late september we hold each other tight
But now it's time to leave and catch the early train
The morning's caught us both crying in the rain.
The different roads the different paths
We really shouldn't have met
It's hard for me it's hard for you
We really should forget...

I'm going to denver I'm headed home now
Your from england we'll find a way somehow
To let our memories fade like morning into night
Cause we can't stand the pain I know this must be right
The different roads the different paths
We really shouldn't have met
It's hard for me it's hard for you
We really should forget...

Oh my darling it's time to say goodbye
Oh my darling darling please don't cry
I know it hurts so much you know it hurts me too
Goodbye darling I'll be leavin soon
