Once I had a heart but life broke it

Once I had a heart but love stole it

I got nothing left to take

I got nothing left to break.

I was a king the top of my class

I was a pauper who came in last

But I always had a heart to give

And I always gave it all to live.

Now I give it all to you

I surrender

Yes, I give it all to you

Put my heart your hands

Now I give it all to you

It's too much and I'm thru

Yes, I give it all to you.
