She's so beautiful lying there next to me
She's so beautiful anyone can see
That I'm in love with her and I'll always be
She's so beautiful to me

Her silhouette in the moonlight
Her face lights up the sky
She's everything I hoped
For why me I don't know why
No words are spoken just the sound of air
She's so beautiful lying there.

And when I'm lonely
She dries up all my tears
She's the woman who will
Love me through the years.

She wakes up oh I wasn't there
She couldn't sleep
She follows me down stairs
And starts to weep
I hold her in my arms
And now she's so happy
She's so beautiful to me
Oh yes she's so beautiful
She's so beautiful to me
