Why can't you people understand
If you're looking for the end well I'm your man
Lost myself again inside of my head
The world came rushing by and we were dying

Why can't you people understand
Crossed the line again inside of my head
When I opened up the door to let you in
The world came rushing by and we dying

Fighting empty wars inside of my head
I've lost control of my intent
It's hard to hide my evil grin
Came rushing by and we were dying

Strap yourself inside my wicked ride
We'll take a tour my pretty life
I've got a pill to make it end
Came rushing by and we were dying

(We were dying)
