Standing dear on frozen air
And you were leaving
Can you stay for one last dance
I won't lean in
Please come help me to pretend
Or am I dreaming
Thought this was a serenade
To all our loneliness

Oh no
Oh no no oh oh oh
Oh no
Oh no no oh oh oh

I never knew we'd fall apart
I never knew we'd lose it all
Bury me with broken hearts
Shower me in dying flowers
Come with me and say goodbye
My lady lullabye
I know you're waiting in suspense
But the haunting in my head is over you
