She has visions of doubt
She reads the past in tea
Love light fades into gray
So never take it away

She traces circles in
Love lines bleed under pen
I guess I'm down again
I guess I'm down again

Tied down pretty
Till I'm empty again
Tie dyed hippie child hold it in
I cry sometimes I'm sorry sometimes
So come on and kill me again
Come on and kill me again

She can't control her fate
She loves the stinging pain
She'll kneel to sin and pray
Wind wash the leaves away

She traces circles in
Love lines bleed under pen
I guess I'm down again
I guess I'm down again

Repeat chorus
