Maybe my time has come around
To stand up and reply
Must have forgotten what I said
And the bad times in my life

Heard the voices as they said
She's gonna make that boy a man
Watch them stare and catch my grin
As I tear my temple down

Who was I to say I love you
Who was I to make you cry
You were focused on my past
You were furthest from my mind

Whoa... whoa...
Should have been better then
Whoa... whoa...
Better than yesterday
I kept your picture on my wall
One too many nights
Yea I left you standing cold
Wrapped in jaded light
Whoa... whoa...
Should have been better then
Whoa... whoa...
Better than yesterday
Better than yesterday...
