Why don't you go?
Why don't you go?
Why don't you go?

Why don't you go?
Why don't you go?

Kick your ass and like it now that I know you're in my hands
Kick your ass and like it now that I know you're in my hands
Treated me like a mad girl now that I'm fed up with your mind
Never falling apart,
Never walked a road on my side
Never tried, never tried

Why don't you go?
Why don't you go?

Why don't you go?
Why don't you go?
You hide a smile away from me, now I'm changing to
red light
You hide a smile away from me, now I'm changing to red light
Treated me like a mad girl now that I'm fed up with your mind
Never falling apart,
Never walked a road on my side
Never tried, never tried

Why don't you go?
