I answered to all their stupid questions
I wish that I could turn to dust
You know I'm just the kind
That never ever calls back
I'm the one that 'll stay forever

Sorry I didn't show up gentleman
I was on the phone with my friend death
I just wanna be found
Very close to their house
I stole the key and I felt really proud
I will stay forever

Monday's become my fave day
I shoud do my hair
I will reign again
I'll be crowned to be the great
Queen of shame
I should iron my dress
And make up my face
I will stay forever

I laid on the floor
'till they're gone
Then moved back
And took your bones
I love you even more
I need a new place for your soul

I pissed on their graves
And I bet it still smells
