The followers
The leaders
And I'm crying out a storm
The water oh! is freezing
And the pain's starting to show
I have to call you
Oh! I know I'm begging at your door
But don't you worry
I've been this low before
Would you believe in me?
I'm waiting alone
Whatever happens to you
I really wanna know
do you remember?
Just tell me
Maybe I'm wrong
Whatever happens to me
I'm ready for it all
And I have to admit
I've been obsessing
Oh! I know I know
The holly ones
The sinners
And I'm crying out a storm
staring at the ceiling
And the pain's starting to show
I have to call you
Oh! I know I'm begging at your door
But don't you worry
I've been this low before
