Now it's getting cold and here comes my nightmare oh! If I could take time back I wouldn't do what I did now it's too late, now it's so hard
I'm not ready to go.
Wait a minute, wait a second
just give me time
'cause now that I've become a good girl
I admit I was wrong
for you whatever, for you whatever
for you whatever
I'm not ready to go.
Now it's getting dark and here come my nightmare

oh! If I could take time back I wouldn't said what I said now it's too late, now it's too hard
I'm not ready to go.
Wait a minute, wait a second
Just give me time
'cause now that I've become a good girl
I admit I was wrong.
For you whatever, for you whatever
for you whatever
I'm not ready to go.
