Someday soon you'll know how it feels to love someone

All my love and all my heart go with you Just look into my eyes and what can you see?
But all my love and all the time keep with me
I'll keep it with me

Someday soon you'll know how it feels to love someone Someday soon you'll know how it feels to trust someone

Seven days and seven nights have fallen
Empty streets and bright lights he's walking
So why is it the ones we love we can't trust?
We can't trust

Because someday soon you'll know how it feels to love
someone
Someday soon you'll know how it feels to trust
someone
To trust someone, someone

It's been a while since I loved someone
