Fate, brought you
Brought you next to ghosts
They talk in code
Looking for a way out

I hope, I hope
I hope you want to live a day
And learn to cope
I hope you find what matters

Through the streets and on your own
Almost lost and almost home
We'll be looking all we can
We'll be searching for the Sulphur Man

Pills stopped you
Stopped you feeling life
Fall into a hole
Sympathy and all

A soul in tatters
A soul as black as coal
I hope, I hope
I wish you could find what matters

Through the streets and on your own
Almost lost and almost home
We'll be looking all we can
We'll be searching for the Sulphur Man

Through the streets and on your own
Almost lost and almost home
We'll be looking all we can
We'll be searching for the Sulphur Man

We'll be searching for the Sulphur Man

Through the streets and on your own
Almost lost and almost home
We'll be looking all we can
We'll be searching for the Sulphur Man
