Long day lay me low, lay me low

Head burning drunk
I don't need none
That's right, man, I'm fine
But what I've got to know
Is have I wasted time?

My eyes are blind
To almost everything you see
And I'm drowning through sorrow
You recognize me
Be me for a change
(Fucked)

Under the silk
In a box of pine
And that's dying
Not a single other life

Ever will have felt my price
Is it worth the risk to be revived?
And I'm dying, I'm hollow
It won't deny me
Be me for a change
(Fucked)

On the last day
They'll take it all away
On and outta my mind
Gimme some medicine

And I'm drowning through sorrow
It won't deny me
Be me for a change
(Fucked)
Yeah, one more time

Long day, kill me long
