My time, all my life
Some way, I saved
The memory, the pending
The family, surround me

A God given time
A God given gift of life
A time to take away, to kill the pain
To give me to the ground

The pills, the windowsill
Razor blade, great escape
So lonely, the feeling
The slipping, the bleeding

Good Lord where are you found?
Carry judgment way underground
Did you laugh at me, now alone?
Shoulda changed my way by now

Hero
Hero
Hero

A God given time
A God given gift of life
A time to take away, to kill the pain
To give me to the ground

Thanks
Well thank you
