When you return
Expect concern
Lived through the high
And the lower
For some are chosen
Weary from from fighting
The clock is broken
Recalling

This work is timeless

I'm re-re-born
A rare gift adorned
Sought out the truth
Without any proof
For I've been tested
Exhausted fighting
Sadness infested
Recalling

This work is timeless

This work is timeless
Recalling
This work is timeless
They'll never get rid of me

This work is timeless
Recalling
This work is timeless
This work is timeless
