It all started and ended like this
Now I'm here, staring out the window
Watching time fly by.

The phone has yet to ring
This is the song I sing
This is the song I sing to you and him...

Does he wear sunglasses like I do?
Squeeze your hand like the way I used to?
Call you every morning? Call you every night?
Make you smile even though we're in a fight?

Make you shiver like it's cold outside?
I won't believe that our love died
You're the one for me.
