I saw you staring from across the room
I was wondering what got into you
I was hoping later, it might be me
A few more drinks and we will see.

I like the way you're playing hard to get
I won't spill my drink, but I'll get you wet.
Take off those clothes and meet me there
Draw me a map into your underwear.

Baby I know that I just met you
But we both know that this ain't new
Put you through the motions like you're used to
Make you think this is real.

A few more drinks and we're on our way
We came to party and we're here to stay
We're on the tables, you can't take us down
Nobody's going to take our crown.

It's getting late but we don't care
Going to party till the sun's in the air
Girls getting low while I'm getting high
Just one more hit to get me by.

Baby I know that I just met you
But we both know that this ain't new
Put you through the motions like you're used to Make you think this is real.
