(ahh)

(Hold your angel, he came from the stars and it's a cold, a cold world outside)

(Ahhh, ahh, ahhhh) (oh, oh)

Hold you angel
Hold your angel
Hold you angel,
He has fallen from so far tonight

Kiss your angel
Kiss your angel
Kiss your angel
He was falling from so far, falling from so far tonight

Hold your angel he falls from so far
And he needs a warm word inside
Hold your angel he came from the stars
And it's a cold, a cold world outside

From the storm to the fire,
From the fire to you
With a girl in his wings tonight
He was falling from so far
Falling for you
He's yours so please hold him tight

Save your angel
Save your angel
Save your angel
He is burning for you, girl, tonight

Hold your angel
Kiss your angel
Save your angel
He is burning for you, girl, burning for you girl tonight

Hold your angel he falls from so far
And he needs a warm word inside
Hold your angel he came from the stars
And it's a cold, a cold world outside

From the storm to the fire,
From the fire to you
With a girl in his wings tonight
He was falling from so far
Falling for you
He's yours so please hold him tight

(ooh, ah, ooh, ooh, aaaah, ooh, oaaah, etc)
